PRICE THREE CENTS

MERCHANTS FORM NEW ORGANIZATION

Second Well-Attended Meeting Shows Interest of Local Tradesmen.

TO MEET EACH MONTH

Wednesday night 30 of Narberth's business men gathered in the office of John Caldwell to talk things over. It was the second such meeting within a month—the second of what promises to be a long series of mutually helpful conferences.

A month ago Narberth's merchants met to solve the traffic problem, and were able to take a big step forward. Wednesday the success of that first meeting was reflected in the formation of a permanent organization to meet monthly and tackle problems which come up.

The new organization will not be a chamber of commerce, nor yet a men's club. The social side will be expressed in monthly dinners; the business side in committees and conferences.

Wednesday night the discussion dwelt again on parking and traffic. Plans were discussed for a possible widening of Haverford avenue, and a reduction in the "hump" caused by the high crown of the street.

Other matters were touched on, including the possibility of a new station; drainage problems in the business section; a uniform building line; the stimulation of local buying.

As a step towards the latter end, the meeting voted unanimously to support a continued advertising and editorial campaign in Our Town. This will be begun next week, and in a series of large advertisements, the story of the Narberth business section will be told.

The choosing of a name for the new body, together with the formulation of by-laws, was left to a committee, headed by Ralph S. Dunne. This committee will report at the next meeting.

Future meetings will be held on the fourth Monday of each month. The next date is December 27, when the merchants will meet for supper and discussion in the Y. M. C. A. building.

The following business men were present at the meeting:

Chris Koch, Ralph S. Dunne, S. J. Thomas, Howard F. Cotter, Charles Hewit, J. Bertram Nesper, George Markle, C. W. Merkle, B. G. Constantine, Wynnefield H. Cook, Charles E. Funk.

Walter G. Case, A. B. Cooper, Vincent Mariani, Philip A. Livingston, Fred Walzer, Eugene H. Davis, John A. Caldwell, Harry B. Wall, Henry T. Nash, Jr., Taylor Henry, Marios Chios, Ethan Allen Keith, Claude H. Crane, Chester P. Cook, Sam Strauss, G. B. Freeman, J. Paul Shea, Alex. C. Betus, Joseph Adelizzi.

BEQUEATHS $35,000.

Annie Addison Fox, late of Ardmore, in her will, probated Wednesday, disposes of an estate valued at $35,000. "In appreciation of her faithfulness and loving kindness during the twenty-eight years she resided with the testatrix," Mary O'Rourke is to be given $300. The residuary estate is given in equal shares to the sons, Walter Addison Fox, Clifford Stanley Fox and Charles Daniel Fox, who are also named as executors of the will, which was executed February 22, 1926.

MOTORISTS WARNED

The first of the year is going to find thousands of motor cars tied up because owners having failed to obtain 1927 registration plates, acting Secretary of Highways Connel said recently. He explained that of the approximately 1,500,000 motor vehicles in Pennsylvania only 300,000 have been registered for next year.

He reiterated a previous statement that there will be no extension for the use of 1926 tags.

PLANT CHRISTMAS TREE

The Civic Committee of the Women's Community Club is this year fulfilling an ambition long dear to the hearts of the club members, the planting of a living Christmas tree. It seems fitting that some formality should mark the occasion. Hence the club invites the public to come to the park by the P. R. R. station at 3.30 P. M. Monday, December 6, to see that the tree is planted with the proper rites.

The Pennsylvania Railroad, which has given its consent to the placing of the tree on its ground, will be represented by J. O. Hackenberg, general superintendent of the P. R. Division, who will be a speaker.

21 GRID MEN GET FOOTBALL LETTERS

Committee Approves Names at High School Meeting on Monday.

SMITH LIKELY CAPTAIN

Lettermen in football were named Monday at Lower Merion High School at a meeting of the Football Athletic Committee. This committee is composed of the coaches, captain, manager and the officers of the Athletic Association.

Twenty-one men were approved by the committee for their insignias. Nineteen of these were given full letters with voting power. These were Sam Barclay, '28; Horace Mowrey, '27; John McGowan, '27; Matthew Miller, '27; Paul Dohan, '27; Max Abramson, '27; Monroe Purse, '28; Jack Miller, '27; Oswald Smith, '28; Irving Dohard, '28; Scott, '29; Robert Harris, '27; Seril Gibson, '27; Wallie Litchfield, Paul Derham, '27; Frank Jensen, '27; Allan Cooke, '28; George Maguire, '27, and George Purvis, '27.

Captain Wendell B. Stewart, '27, who was forced out of the regular line-up in mid-season when the five-year player rule was enforced, was voted honorary letters. He earned his first regular letters last season. Thomas Ottey, manager, was the twenty-first boy given an insignia. He was voted honorary letters as per traditional custom for managers.

Who the leader for next year will be is not yet certain. There will probably be three candidates in the field—Dohard, Smith and Barclay. Ossie Smith, at the present time, seems the most likely one to garner the necessary number of votes to make him captain.

The annual football banquet, usually held the week after the Radnor game, has been delayed this year. School authorities have indicated that it will not be held until the cafeteria in the new wing of the high school is completed. Its completion is anticipated shortly before the Christmas holidays.

The Lower Merion High football team of 1926 will meet the same fate as the eleven of 1925 next June. It will be completely broken up by graduations. This is evident when a count of the lettermen is taken, and it is discovered that thirteen of the twenty regulars who got their insignias will be given diplomas this spring.

Despite this wholesale departure of grid men in June the Lower Merion coaches are hopeful of Lower Merion's football prospects for next year. And the reason is one of the best squads of substitutes that the Maroon and White has had in years. Veterans who have watched the subs perform tell of first-class material which is expected to develop into a formidable eleven for Lower Merion next year. Some of the subs from whom big things are expected next year are Ernie Mandes, back; Wallie Tyson a back; Bridgeman, a guard; Bill Kohlas, a back; Pud Cunningham, a guard; Richardson, an end; Murphy, a tackle; Blare, a center; Bottoms, a guard; and Barrett, a quarterback.

When the Athletic Committee met Monday, there was also in attendance coaches, captains and managers of soccer and hockey. After the football lettermen were named, lettermen in soccer and hockey were also gone over and approved.

NEAR $600,000 IN SAVINGS TO GO OUT

10 Main Line Banks Sending This Sum to Christmas Club Savers.

INCREASE OF $84,890

Nearly $600,000 will be distributed by the ten banks of the Main Line, from Bala-Cynwyd to Paoli, to depositors who are members of Christmas Savings Clubs. This is an increase of approximately $94,890 over last year.

The majority of the club checks are already in the hands of depositors as most of the banks made them payable on Wednesday, December 1. A few institutions have still to mail them, but all will have their Christmas Savings Club accounts paid by December 10.

The Merion Title and Trust Company of Ardmore, the biggest financial institution of the Main Line, with branch offices in Narberth and Cynwyd, will send out the largest amount. Its total in Christmas Club checks will be $235,000, an increase of approximately $5000 over last year's sum. Of this amount, $148,000 will be distributed in Ardmore, $55,000 in Narberth and $32,000 in Bala-Cynwyd, according to figures given by its officials.

The second largest amount will be sent out by the Bryn Mawr National. Its total is $95,000, also an increase of $5000 over its last year's sum.

The Wayne Title and Trust is third, and will distribute $58,805.50, while the approximate amounts to be sent out by the Bryn Mawr Trust will be $55,000 and the Ardmore National, $44,000.

The total amount to be distributed to Christmas Club depositors from figures given out by the ten banks will be $598,965.78. This is an increase of $84,889.94 when compared to the announced total of last year, which was $514,075.84.

Practically all of the banks showed increases in their Christmas Club deposits this year over last.

Two new banks figure this year among the Christmas Club check senders. They are the Narberth National, which is nearing its second anniversary, and the Bala-Cynwyd National, which is a year and a half old. Both were organized too late to get the Christmas Club plan working in time for last year.

The Narberth Bank, in its initial Christmas Club checking, is giving out $20,000. The Bala-Cynwyd National is distributing $11,000. The latter has already mailed checks to 385 Christmas Club depositors.

Following are the amounts sent out by the ten Main Line banks to Christmas Club savers this year and last:

Bank	1926	1925
Merion Title & Trust	$235,000.00	$230,000.00

New Fire Whistle Sought So Narberth Will Stay "High Hat"

Narberth has always prided itself on being distinctive. Among other things, not only is the borough proud of being a little island set in the midst of Lower Merion township; it also boasts of the fact that there is not another community in America that has the same name. Narberth is different.

But when the Narberth fire whistle blows, borough residents cannot distinguish it in tone and volume from other fire whistles along the Main Line. It is just like the others.

SELECTION OF NEW SCOUTMASTER FIRST STEP IN RENEWED ACTIVITY

Benjamin J. Cook, Manual Training Teacher, to Head Local Troops—Reception at Meetings This Month.

Plans for the complete rejuvenation of the Boy Scout movement in the borough were laid on Wednesday evening at a joint meeting of the Fathers' Association and the Troop Committee in "The Cabin."

Benjamin J. Cook, instructor in manual training at the public schools, was chosen to be the Scout Master, beginning with the first meeting of the boys' organization in the new year. This will be held on January 7.

The former Scout Masters, F. T. VanAuken and I. N. Wilson, because of press of business, found it impossible to continue as the active heads of the two troops. Mr. VanAuken relinquished control of Troop No. 1 in the early fall, while Mr. Wilson's resignation will become effective at the close of the year.

Mr. Cook, who is a new resident of the borough, comes highly recommended for his work among boys, having been connected with the Scout organization for some time in his former home. His work in the newly-created manual training department in the local schools has won the admiration of many of the boys as well as their parents.

He will be placed in complete charge, with the assistance of three assistant Scout Masters. These persons will be left to his selection, subject to the approval of the Troop Committee, which presented for his consideration the names of three young men who are thoroughly versed in Scoutcraft.

Will Enlist Parents' Help.

A definite, progressive plan of Scout work is already in process of preparation. This will be laid out well in advance for the entire winter season. In the meantime, the members of the Troop Committee and the officers of the Fathers' Association will make personal calls on the parents of the boys whose names are at present on the Scout roster. The idea will be to enlist their co-operation in seeing that their boys are regular in attendance, and assisting them in mastering the work mapped out for their benefit.

A series of special features for the entertainment and education of the boys has been outlined. This will be discussed with the parents with a view to securing their suggestions. This will take the form of talks on popular subjects by men of authority in their respective fields. Some of them

FRIENDSHIP LEAGUE ELECTS

The following officers were elected at a recent business meeting of the Friendship League of Young People's Societies: President, Charlotte Hillegas, of the Baptist Church; vice president, Edward Purring, of the Methodist Church; secretary, Frieda Senn, of the Lutheran Church, and treasurer, John Wilson, of the Presbyterian Church.

Plans are being made for the first devotional meeting of this season, which will be announced soon. The new officers promise many pleasant events in the near future.

GIVE LUNCHEON THURSDAY

A covered dish luncheon will be given at 12.30 Thursday, the 9th, in the Post Room of the Community Building, Windsor avenue. Tickets are 50 cents and can be purchased from any member of the American Legion Auxiliary, or admission can be paid at the door. Everyone is invited.

CARD PARTY WEDNESDAY

The card party announced by the Mothers' Association will be given for the benefit of the Narberth Girl Scouts Wednesday, the 8th, at 2.15 P. M., at the Scout House, Windsor avenue. The admission of 50 cents will cover prizes and refreshments.

NEW OFFICE

The Narberth Plumbing and Heating Co., who have had offices for the past year at 258 Haverford avenue, have moved to their new building at 101 Conway avenue.

The office is now located on the second floor of their shop. Maurice J. Lacey and George B. Suplee compose the firm.

WOMEN'S CLUB HEARS SPEAKERS AND SOLOIST

At Tuesday's Meeting—Plans Luncheon-Card Party.

The Women's Community Club heard a varied program on Tuesday, November 30. Mrs. J. B. Hipwell, Jr., accompanied by Mrs. Howard Hipwell, sang most beautifully. The power and richness of her voice, together with her unaffected manner gave very real pleasure to her audience. Miss Walbaum, executive secretary of the Main Line Federation of Churches, told of possibilities of usefulness for the club's usual Christmas charities. Many individuals volunteered aid for special needs in addition to the group donation.

Dainty and girlish, but alert and completely all there, Mrs. Henry Kelly, the speaker of the afternoon, held her hearers to the very last word. She gave first a list of books suggested as gifts for children, grouping them by ages and adding very brief characterizations. These books are all new and quite worth while. Secondly, Mrs. Kelly turned to the best recent fiction and mentioned some 18 books with illuminating comments thereon. Surely, the club hopes to welcome Mrs. Kelly again in the future.

Tea was served by Mrs. L. B. Edgerton, aided by Mrs. L. W. Bergeron, Mrs. A. W. Burns, Mrs. J. A. Caldwell, Mrs. Camille Dehm and Mrs. E. C. Drew.

For several years the various civic chairmen have been working towards the placing of a permanent Christmas tree in Narberth. That goal is now in sight. Mrs. H. A. Jacobs has arranged for a tree planting ceremony as announced elsewhere in this issue.

The Hospitality Committee again reminds you of its luncheon-card party on Wednesday, December 8, in Elm Hall. Luncheon will be served from 1 to 2. Tickets are 75 cents.

MANY OPPOSED TO SHINGLE MEASURE

Citizens Vote Unanimously Against Drastic Bill Proposal.

NOT FELT WARRANTED

At a well-attended meeting in Elm Hall, Monday night, Council listened to the opinions of a number of residents on the proposed anti-wooden-shingle law.

Twenty-five citizens were present, and with one accord proceeded to bring forth objections to the pending legislation. The Ordinance and Law Committee of Council had called the gathering, in the hope of getting representative opinions before the bill was brought before Council.

The objections to the ordinance were based on several points. It was brought out that a large number of Narberth homes depend for their architectural design upon wooden shingles, and that substitutes would be worse than out of place.

A number of samples of various types of substitutes were brought in, and fire applied to each. It was shown that many of the proposed substitutes were far from fireproof, and that in actual practice, the abolition of wood as a material would have little effect from a safety standpoint.

Fire Chief Charles V. Noel explained his reasons for opposing wooden roofs. He quoted his experience with roof fires, and told of incidents in other parts of the country where wooden shingles were held to blame for widespread fires.

Several of those present pointed out that the passage of the ordinance would effect little saving in fire insurance rates; that the underwriters had so far shown little apparent recognition of the many safety steps taken by the borough—in short, that it wouldn't be worth it to the taxpayers.

When an informal vote was taken, the meeting voted unanimously to oppose the bill, which was printed in these columns last week. It is expected that the anti-shingle legislation will be pigeonholed by Council in view of the sentiments expressed.

The shingle matter disposed of, those present turned to an interesting discussion of various civic problems, including zoning, traffic, building regulations, etc., bringing out a number of ideas which the members of Council have tucked away for future guidance.

AUXILIARY MEETS WEDNESDAY

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Narberth Presbyterian Church will be held Wednesday the 8th, from 10 to 4. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock.

Donations of money will be received at this meeting for Christmas baskets for "shut-ins" and also for the milk fund of the Main Line Federation of Churches.

LEAVES BLAZE

Brooms quietly put out a fire in the borough early Wednesday morning. Blazing leaves were discovered on Windsor avenue near Narbrook Park at 2.30 A. M. As a stiff breeze was blowing, the chemical truck, manned by Gillespie, went quietly to the scene, where some work with brooms by Officer Piquet and the fireman soon removed the danger.

GETS FIRST SANTA LETTER

The first loving epistle of the season directed to "Santa Claus, North Pole," has been received at the Narberth Post Office, says Postmaster Bertram J. Nesper. It announces the following modest wants: "Dear Santa:

"I'm four and a half years old, and I want a sled, a chuchu train, a pony, a set of soldiers, a battleship, a brown collie dog with white spots on its ear, a jumping-jack, a whole lot of sticky candy, and a Christmas tree and a football."

"Bobby."

Two Pauls—Both Sculls.

Paul Scull, possessor of the accurate foot which gave the University of Pennsylvania football team its victories over Penn State and Columbia and tie last Thursday with Cornell, has a namesake on Annapolis avenue in Atlantic City, age six and very proud of the accomplishments of the elder Paul on the gridiron.

He made that very clear in a letter which he sent Penn's Paul at the latter's home in Bala last week.

"My name is Paul Scull, too," he wrote the Red and Blue half-back, "and when I grow up I hope I can be like you. I think you are a great football player."

The letter was signed Paul A. Scull. Paul, the dropkicker, has a middle name of Thomas, though that has never yet crept into the sporting pages. Nor is it mentioned in the official programs at Franklin Field.

This week, the mails carried a reply from Paul, Senior, to Paul Junior.

Someone's Christmas in the Philippine Islands will be cheered by a New England fruit cake, which was sent a couple of weeks ago by a customer of Ewald's Pastry Shop.

CITY LINE WIDENING

Urged by Montgomery County Keystone Auto Club. Awaits Money.

Road conditions at City Line avenue, on the eastern border of Lower Merion, were discussed last Monday at the meeting of the Montgomery County Keystone Automobile Club at Valley Forge Hotel, Norristown.

The members went on record as urging the widening of the road and placing of permanent sewers. They also urged the lowering of the steep grade near the bridge over the Schuylkill River. Many accidents have happened on this road.

Legislation was passed some years ago by the State providing for the widening of City avenue to 80 feet. That projected improvement is now on the Lower Merion road plan, and the township is forcing new builders along the street to build back in anticipation of the widening. The realization of the project now awaits a suitable moment for financing by the State, Montgomery County, Lower Merion Township and the City of Philadelphia.

DOUBLE BIRTHDAY

A double party was held at 108 Chestnut avenue Sunday in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Louise S. O'Brien and of her daughter, Mrs. Mary M. Livingston.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Wales and daughter, of Narberth, spent the past week at Atlantic City, where they were guests at the Hotel Iroquois.

CANNEL COAL

"The Safety Burner"

Whether wood shingles or fire-resisting roofing cover your house, it is best to be particular about your method in handling the open fireplace.

It is true that often, from your blazing fire of logs, great chips of burning wood will be carried up the chimney by a strong draft—sometimes dying a natural death as they shoot into the air—at other times playing a dangerous game of hide-and-seek with your roofing material.

The use of Cannel coal prevents this hazardous spark-flying. The blaze which Cannel coal makes is strong, and bright—but very clean—for there are never any escaping sparks to fly up the chimney. This is one reason why so many people are changing their log fires to Cannel coal—the safety burner.

Then, too, it is cheaper, at $14.00 a ton.

Metals Corrode—

Human Beings Die

Metals which quickly corrode and wear out when exposed to the elements can be made to last many years under identical conditions by the simple process of galvanizing.

Human beings who would fall an easy prey to many dangerous diseases are made immune by simple treatments which can be administered by every physician.

The smallpox danger is eliminated by vaccination. Typhoid fever, tetanus, rabies, diphtheria and other such diseases and ailments which were formerly deadly or extremely dangerous are now preventable or their attacks are made far less fearsome by preventive medicine.

It is impossible even to surmise how tremendously human life would be conserved if everyone would make it a policy to get the physician's attention as soon as approaching illness is even suspected.

The druggist plays a part in the conservation of human life in exact proportion to the kind of prescription department he maintains. Ours is the kind which is kept prepared at all times to render real service.

Experiences Told to Rotarians by Chris Koch, Narberth Druggist.

Chris Koch, Narberth druggist, was the speaker at the weekly luncheon Tuesday of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club. He told of his experiences as a member of the State Pharmacy Board, narrated stories of the warfare waged upon patent medicines containing dope and exhibited pipes and other paraphernalia taken in a raid upon an opium den.

The next meeting of the club this coming Tuesday will be in the evening. The program will be in charge of J. A. Miller, Chairman of the Rotary Education Committee, and James Carroll, chairman of the Business Methods Committee. The meeting, as usual, will be at the Cynwyd Club.

On the following day, Wednesday, a number of the Rotarians, accompanied by their wives, will attend the luncheon of the Philadelphia Rotary Club at the Bellevue-Stratford. Harry Lauder, Scotch comedian, will be the feature speaker and attraction.

HELP POST OFFICE BY EARLY MAILING

Do Christmas Shopping Now and Send Parcels to Insure Delivery.

The post office will make every effort to handle the Christmas mails without congestion and delay, but owing to the enormous volume this can be done only with the co-operation of the public, according to a statement this week by Postmaster J. B. Nesper. Compliance with the following suggestions will greatly aid the post office and insure the prompt handling of your mail.

Christmas gifts and cards addressed to points within one day's travel should be mailed not later than December 20; within two days' travel, not later than December 18; within three days' travel, not later than December 16; for more distant points, not later than December 14. Parcels and cards for local delivery should be mailed not later than December 22.

Parcels and envelopes may be indorsed "please do not open until Christmas."

The early mailing of Christmas cards is just as important as parcels. Millions of these cards, separate and in envelopes, are mailed each Christmas. Consequently, great congestion and delay occurs in large post offices when they are all mailed within a day or two of Christmas. Therefore, if you want your Christmas greetings to reach your relatives and friends on or before Christmas day, follow the instructions in the preceding paragraph relative to mailing early and be certain of delivery before Christmas.

All parcels must be securely wrapped or packed. Use strong paper and heavy twine.

Postage must be fully prepaid on all mail. Affix the required amount of postage in the upper right corner. Full information concerning postage rates can be obtained at the parcel-post or stamp window.

No parcel may be more than 84 inches in length and girth combined. For delivery locally and in the first zone, second and third zones, 70 pounds is the maximum weight; in all other zones, 50 pounds.

No deliveries will be made on Christmas day after 12 noon. Mail early for delivery before Christmas.

"EL CAPITAN"

Will Be Given December 15 by Philadelphia Operatic Society.

It has been several years since Philadelphians have had an opportunity to hear John Philip Sousa's merry and melodious operetta, "El Capitan," which will be produced by the Philadelphia Operatic Society under the direction of the composer in person. The performance will be given at the Academy of Music on the evening of December 15.

This is in accordance with the present policy of the society of reviving each season one of the fine old comic operas which have been driven from the stage by other forms of entertainment, but which have a charm of their own, excellent comedy, something of a connected plot, and fine music. A generation ago many of the world's greatest composers gave of their best in this class of opera.

An excellent cast has been selected, and the opera is now at rehearsals being sung with spirit and a finish that promises one of the best performances by the society in years. Stage work, too, is well under way, under the direction of Charles E. Schroeder, who has many hundred successful productions to his credit. Rehearsals are being conducted by Clarence K. Bawden, the regular musical director of the society.

Mrs. Edwin A. Watrous is general director of the society, at Estey Building, Seventeenth and Walnut streets. Seats are now being ordered in advance. Subscriptions for the entire season of three performances may be entered at a reduced rate.

"INSIDE" INFORMATION

Wild rabbits have a good, gamey flavor, but the domestic rabbits are even better, and are very similar in taste to chicken.

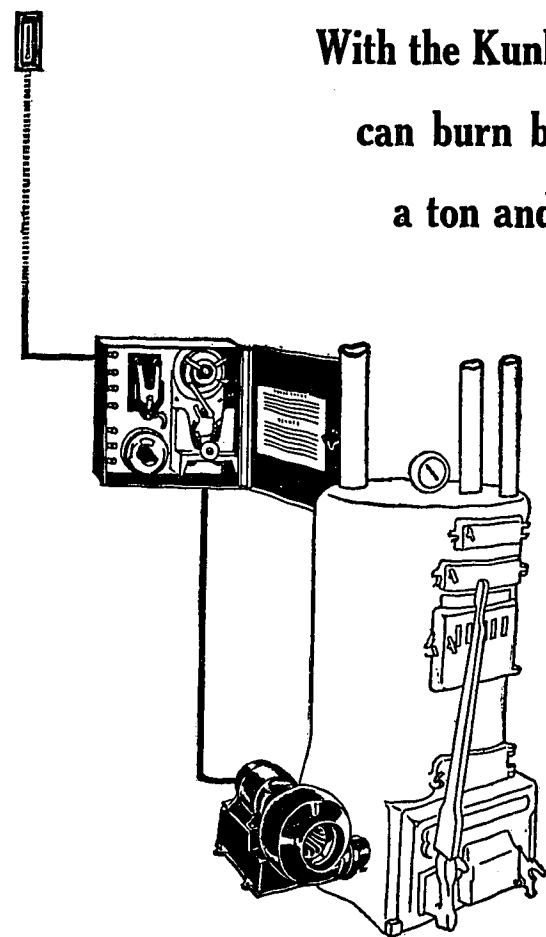

Stout people should not wear shiny fabrics, which seem to increase their size. Soft, clinging materials should be chosen rather than stiff ones, and coarsely woven, thick or fuzzy materials should be avoided.

Why pay at the rate of $18.70 a ton for oil?

With the Kunkel Combustion System you can burn buckwheat coal at $7.50

a ton and use no more tonnage.

Before you rush into expensive oil burning, consider the new, scientific way of burning buckwheat coal with a Kunkel Combustion System.

Not only do you get more heat, but you also save about two-thirds your oil bill. Figure it yourself. Oil at 10 cents a gallon costs you $18.70 for the equivalent of a ton of 2240 pounds of anthracite. Buckwheat coal costs you $7.50 a ton. With the Kunkel Combustion System you will use no more buckwheat, ton for ton, than you have used of the larger-size coal. Figure your saving.

The Kunkel Combustion System is not a trifling something that's "attached" to your furnace. It is a complete automatic combustion system that burns buckwheat coal and accurately controls and maintains the desired temperature in your home, thermostatically.

Let us tell you more about the Kunkel Combustion System and where you can see it in operation.

- Reasons for burning coal
1. Only six years visible supply of oil.
 2. Oil is expensive.
 3. Oil prices have increased yearly.
 4. Coal is cheaper than oil.
 5. Coal is safer than oil.
 6. Coal is more dependable.

SIDEWALK COST IS NOT UP TO STATE

Judge Wickersham So Rules in Case of Lower Merion Taxpayers.

MAY TAKE AN APPEAL

The decision in regard to the Lancaster Pike sidewalks which has been awaited with considerable interest was handed down by Judge Frank B. Wickersham, of the Dauphin County Court, on Monday. The suit, brought by certain taxpayers of Lower Merion township, Wynnewood residents and the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce, through W. Logan MacCoy, has dragged through the courts all summer; and Judge Wickersham finally ruled that the State Highway Department is not obliged to pay for sidewalks removed or ripped up in the widening of Lancaster Pike.

The case is regarded in Harrisburg as being one of State-wide importance owing to proceedings now under way for widening other State highways, including the famous River Road, in North Harrisburg. Radnor township authorities also have been awaiting the outcome of the case with interest inasmuch as they are faced with the same situation in Wayne and St. Davids.

Under the law before starting work on widening any highway, the State files notice of intention to establish what is known as "ultimate width" by a statement entered in the Court house of the county where the road is located, and these proceedings have been upheld in the Wickersham decision.

According to the people in Harrisburg the great weight of the decision is on the side of the Commonwealth and the State cannot be made to pay for new sidewalks after notice has been given of intention to widen the road. The State legal authorities are prepared for early argument should Mr. MacCoy take the case to the Supreme Court in behalf of his clients.

BOWLING SEASON IS ALMOST HALF OVER

Lions and Battlers Will Contest Supremacy Monday.

The Baptist Battlers met the Presbyterian Pep Boys on Friday evening, November 26, and won three straight games.

The Methodist Meteors are getting back their old blood and speed and will end the first half of the bowling season shining brightly. On Monday evening, November 29, the Meteors tried their speed against the Presbyterian Pilots. The Meteors won the three games, but the first and third were by a very small margin. In fact the third game was a tie and had to be decided by rolling an extra frame in which the Meteors won by only one pin.

On Monday evening, December 6, the Lutheran Lions and Baptist Battlers will fight for the championship of the first half of the season. The Lions have the advantage for the fray as they have lost only two games, and the Battlers have lost three.

REV. KEIGHTON SUMMARIZES
In the last of a series of sermons on "Genesis and the Modern Man," the Rev. Robert E. Keighton told his congregation Sunday in the Baptist Church of the Evangel:

"Just as the Creation Story is the development of a Nature Myth to explain the change from the rainy to the dry season of the year, so the Flood Story is a similar development to explain the reverse change. Our Genesis Story is really the very clever, though contradictory, weaving of two stories into one. It becomes one of the more than 200 Deluge Stories of mankind. It is interesting to note that in northern countries the Flood becomes a snowstorm!"

"Our Hebrew Story is unhistorical, but is historical fact rhetorically embellished." It points out the lessons of man's freedom and responsibility; the ultimate aim of the whole creation is man's moral and spiritual evolution; evil acts thwart the divine purpose; and acts of religious significance are real communion with God.

"In this series of 'Genesis for the Modern Man' we have discovered many valuable facts. We may have absolute confidence in allowing the Bible to say what it really does say, without our attempt to support it by patronage, private interpretation and argumentative vindication! The questioning of the historicity of certain parts of the Bible is not to be feared; it is certainly a relief not to be compelled to fight at all the weak points from Adam to the present!"

"There comes a very profound conviction that life is essentially spiritual."

WHY MANNERS?

Question Answered in New Book at Library.

Do you sit down at the dinner table and practically shout "Let's go?" Do you fiddle with the glass and the silver while waiting to be served? Do you make a whirlpool of your coffee or chocolate while stirring in the sugar? Do you say, "Meet my friend?" Do you stand in the hall a half hour in the process of leave-taking? Do you chat on the street corners? If you are inclined to do any of these things, read "Etiquette, Jr.," by Mary E. Clark and Margery Quigley, one of the new books in the children's department of the Library.

The book is written in a most engaging manner, showing the ridiculousness of some of the most cherished habits, and pointing out the sanity of a better way. It displays the motto: "Manners will carry you where money won't" and then proceeds to cover the entire subject of manners from manners at home to manners abroad, and including manners about town, at the dance, at the restaurant and at the theatre. It is written simply and even humorously and is illustrated by Erick Berry with quaint and intriguing sketches. Every one will enjoy looking at the book, adults and young people, for themselves as well as for any little ones who come within their range of influence.

A list of other new books recently bought for the children's department follows:

David Goes to Greenland—Putnam.
Winnie the Poet—Milne.

will be illustrated. Special emphasis will be laid on educating the boys in Scouting work with a view to enabling them to become more proficient in the classifications given in the National Scout Manual.

Introducing New Scoutmaster.

For the purpose of properly introducing the new Scoutmaster to the parents, as well as the boys, an adjourned meeting of the Fathers' Association will be held in "The Cabin" on December 15, at 8 P. M.

At this meeting every effort will be made to have in attendance the fathers of all of the boys actively identified with the local troops. It will be presided over by E. P. Dold, president of the association, who will, during the evening, outline in detail the several plans formulated for the boys. It is anticipated to have as the "speaker of the evening" one of the Scout executives of the Delaware and Montgomery County Division of the organization.

Two days later—on December 17—there will be a special meeting of the boys, themselves, with the members of the Troop Committee and officers of the Fathers' Association.

At both of these meetings, the new Scoutmaster and his three assistants will be formally introduced amid appropriate exercises in keeping with the spirit and workings of the organization.

While emphasis will be placed on having the fathers of the boys who are members attend both of these meetings, the one on December 15 will be open to all male adult residents of the borough.

Another encouraging feature in connection with the Scout movement of the borough is the promise of assistance on the part of the members of the American Legion "H. D. Speakman Post, No. 356."

The nominating committee of the Fathers' Association was urged to submit the names of two members of the Legion to be voted on at the annual election on December 15 to become members of the Troop Committee. By this means it is hoped to form a close working alliance between the two organizations, which will be most beneficial to the borough.

Annual Bazaar Today.

The annual bazaar of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, being held today in the Y. M. C. A. Building, promises to be a very successful affair.

The fancy table will have on display a variety of most beautiful articles, which will be most suitable for Christmas presents.

You may secure your supply of groceries from the grocery table for the next week and your pies and cakes from the home bake table for the week-end.

Aprons, Christmas cards, calendars and miscellaneous articles will be on sale.

The ladies will serve lunch at noon and dinner in the evening.

The people of Narberth are invited to attend the bazaar.

OF STANDARD DESIGN only in its simplest forms, it varies from a small board with a handful of telephones to a great complicated switchboard large enough to serve a city of fifty thousand people.

Its reach must be universal—across the office and across the country.

Its flexibility must react to the peculiar and changing requirements of the establishment employing it.

Its pitch must respond to every note of service struck by the ten or ten thousand who use it.

Specialized equipment, plus, it is an example of the increasing accomplishment of the telephone—to speed and facilitate, to make the hard job easy.
